

INDIVIDUAL TRAINING GUIDE FOR EQUIPPING LEADERS

A Transferable, One-Year Plan

BASICS – As you receive and share this training for ministry and for daily Christian living, be aware that these subjects are simple “basics”. The purpose of this training is to get you started. The intent is not in-depth studies, but to acquaint you with basic areas of ministry you will frequently use. Fruitful ministry will involve life-long learning. In the years ahead, you will increase in your depth of knowledge and breadth of experience in each of these “basics”.

TRANSFERABLE – This approach is intentionally simple. These uncomplicated encounters with the basics will make “transfer” to other potential leaders a joyful ministry of multiplication for the rest of your life (and hopefully theirs also). And the things that you have heard from me among many witnesses, commit these to faithful men who will be able to teach others also. (2 Tim. 2:2)

APPLICATION – The New Testament illustrates that ideal training is offered OTJ (on-the-job) and JIT (just in time). Application via active ministry assignments will greatly enhance leadership development. Be mindful that it is permissible to alter the order of the subjects presented in this Guide to meet felt needs as they arise. This may often be advisable.

Consider a new Christian with whom you could share some of the concepts found in the first three categories of this Guide.
33. Training Leaders/ Multiplication		Matt 9:38, Luke 10:1-2, Acts 13:2, Acts 14:23, *1 Thess. 2:8-9, 2 Tim. 2:2, Titus 1:5	First Century church growth and expansion is still possible when we use First Century methods. God's plan was never simple addition, but always multiplication – of believers, leaders, and congregations. Point out the importance of a discerning spirit that is aware of potential leaders being called-out of God and a willingness to commit personally to equipping them (using this transferable approach) and sending them into new ministries. This type of 2 Tim. 2:2 multiplication makes it feasible to fulfill Christ's Great Commission using only His Word, His Spirit and YOU! No other resources are required.
COUNSELING	(Weeks 34-36)	Every leader will be called upon almost weekly to give advice or counsel and help new believers and seekers answer questions. Consider providing each new leader with a resource that gives Biblical helps for answering the most commonly asked spiritual, moral, and ethical questions. (A list of issues and Scriptures that relate to each often exists in the helps section of most Study or Reference Bibles). Give instruction in counseling basics regarding listening skills, confidentiality, referral, moral/gender cautions, etc.
SPECIALIZED TRAINING	(Weeks 37-44)	There will be training necessary and unique to the specific ministry involved and/or the targeted people group and their contextual setting. The mentor alone is capable to discern what is most needed including ample times for hands-on, ministry encounters together. Allow up to eight weeks to meet for these specialized needs and skills appropriate to the new leader's ministry setting and call.
FLEX TIME	(Weeks 45-52)	This cushion of unscheduled time allows for unexpected changes in work schedules, holidays, weather-related cancellations, family needs, vacations, etc. This flex time also makes it feasible to spend additional time on a given subject for which one week was not sufficient.

This entire approach is a TEMPLATE for TRAINING. It is not meant to be complete or "the answer" in equipping. It is simply a launching point, a model, a template that each leader can further customize as desired to facilitate use with unique individuals in unique settings. For this reason, it is not copyrighted. You may edit and adapt it, however, we request that you carry the help designation listed below so that future generations and multiplications of users can reach us for assistance and consultation if needed.

To further assist in customization, this Guide is available in disc form permitting you to add, delete and create the specific resource tool to best support your equipping ministry. This "Template" disc is available through the above address or its contents can be downloaded at www.kncsb.org
