

Notes

A time management process

Leaders and lost people

What to stop doing

Questions

What does your typical day involve? How do you make bivocational ministry work?

What is your current time management process? How are you planning your week and taking ownership of your schedule? What modifications may be needed?

How are you giving your time to leaders and lost people? Why is this focus of time important in bivocational ministry?

As a leader, what are you not so good at doing? How can you give away these things to team members who are stronger in those areas?