

NOTES

REFLECTION QUESTIONS

Have you focused more on church planting or on expanding the kingdom? Why do you think this emphasis has been your primary focus?

If your church plant will eventually die, how does that change your ministry leadership today to better emphasize expanding the kingdom?

What are some practical ways you can lead your church plant to focus on living with a kingdom expansion mentality in their daily lives?