

NOTES

REFLECTION QUESTIONS

If someone were to look at your own life, would they say you prioritize the Word or the “business of doing church”?

How often do you let the Word shape your meetings? Is it a way to begin a meeting or is it something at the center of your meetings? How can you make sure the Word is prioritized in your day-by-day as you lead the church?